EDMONTON'S ENSEMBLE MUJIRUSHI TO TOUR CANADA!

On the heels of a successful inaugural tour in Europe in November of 2009, as well as local concerts at The International Works Festival (June 2010) and Kaleido Festival (September 2010), Ensemble Mujirushi is pleased to announce its first Canadian Tour to occur between October 5 and 16 of 2010.

During the tour, performing members of Ensemble Mujirushi include Helen Pridmore (voice), Chenoa Anderson (flutes), Allison Balcetis (saxophones), Ian Crutchley (computer), Piotr Grella-Mozejko (computer), and Jerry Ozipko (electric violin).

Six concerts in major Canadian centres will include works by Dan Albertson (USA), W. L. Altman (CDN), Darlene Chepil Reid (CDN), Marek Choloniewski (POL), Ian Crutchley (CDN, première of The Contents of Your Kit May Vary, commissioned through generous assistance of the Alberta Foundation for the Arts), Alex Eddington (CDN, première of Trails, generously supported by the Ontario Arts Council), Piotr Grella-Mozejko (CDN), Michael Kuehn (USA), John Oliver (CDN) and Jerry Ozipko (CDN).

Assisted by a Touring Grant from the Canada Council for the Arts, Ensemble Mujirushi will perform on 5 October in Lethbridge, AB (University of Lethbridge), 8 October in Saskatoon, SK (Saskatoon Composers' Performance Society), 10 October in Montréal, PQ (BradyWorks Concerts), 12 October in Kitchener-Waterloo, ON (Wilfrid Laurier University and First United Church Concerts), 13 October in Thunder Bay, ON (Lakehead University) and 16 October in Toronto, ON (Gallery 345).

Ensemble Mujirushi returns to Edmonton on 17 October.
